ESSM and EFS Exams Preparation Courses

- Fellow of the European Committee on Sexual Medicine (FECSM)
- EFS / ESSM Qualified Psycho-Sexologist

ESSM will offer examination preparation courses for those intending to take the examination in January 2020.

The courses are intended for physicians with experience of specialist-level practice in Sexual Medicine who wish to increase their chance of passing the MJCSM exam and for psychologists who intend to apply for the EFS / ESSM qualification exam for Psycho-Sexologists.

Preparation courses of 3 days are being planned from 20-22 January 2020; these will provide an overview of all subjects in the MJCSM curriculum of Sexual Medicine that may be included in the examination and an overview of the content of the syllabus for clinical sexologists. Furthermore, advice about exam skills and practice in completing Sexual Medicine MCQ’s will be given.

The teaching faculty for the courses will include recognised experts in the field of Sexual Medicine.

The location and specific dates will be published on the ESSM website.

CME Accreditation
Application will be made for CME recognition for these courses and the exam so that participants may gain CME credits.

Further details will be available on the ESSM website: www.essm.org
The Multidisciplinary Joint Committee on Sexual Medicine (MJCSM)

The Committee was established by the UEMS specialist sections of Urology, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, and Psychiatry, and functions, within the framework of their respective statutes and bylaws. Its principle objective is to guarantee and promote the highest standards of healthcare in the field of Sexual Medicine, by ensuring that training in Sexual Medicine in Europe is established at an optimal level.

The MJCSM determines the standards for training and assessment in Sexual medicine.

The next examination of the MJCSM will take place on 23 January 2020, prior to the ESSM Congress in Prague, Czech Republic.

Eligibility
The exam is set under the auspices of the UEMS but physicians of all nationalities, including countries outside the EU, are allowed to take the exam.

Examination format
The exam duration will be 3 hours and will include 100 MCQ’s in 5 domains of Sexual Medicine.

Who can apply?
Only registered medical practitioners, who are accredited as medical specialists in their country of practice, or who are General Practitioners with more than 5 years’ clinical experience of unsupervised independent practice, are eligible to apply. Candidates need to fill out their cases in the logbook available at the MJCSM website. Two letters of recommendations should be provided. Candidates will need to demonstrate an approved and appropriate education and experience in Sexual Medicine.
